I thought that this would only bring up the standard "load" window. A: If you actually go into Xforce with the cracked version of that Autodesk program, you can double click the tab with load and do the model, and you will get the load screen in the menu. You can also double click in the menu for any sub tab, and it will give you the usual model load screen. Q: Регулярное выражение для создания результата на русском языке Есть функция, которая нужно обработать строку Код как выглядит: s_id = user_input(:id) Допустим возникла необходимость сделать на Русском языке при помощи проверяемого регулярного выражения, и нужно, чтобы строка заработала для обработки у русскоязычных пользователей. s = s_id.encode.gsub(/[^а-яА-Я]+/, " ") ...
